FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

THE CONSTITUTION for the campaign will be the newsiest, brightest and completest newspapes over offered to the southern people. Address.

CONSTITUTION PUBLISHING CO.

post-office, December 11, 1879 ATLANTA, GA,, 'AUGUST 4, 1880.

MINORITIES are frequently very pow erful. In nominating conventions they frequently have it in their power to defeat the will of the people and destroy the harmony of parties. WILL the convention to-day harmoniz and unite the party by throwing personto the al prejudices and preferences ds and recognizing the will of the people, or will it promote disruption and noralization?

A CORRESPONDENT of the Savannah News, impressed with the idea that the majority of a convention have rights as well as a minority, suggests that where there are many candidates, the lowest should be dropped on each ballot until there are only two or three candidates.

THE fusion between the greenbackers and republicans in Alabama failed to THE CONSTITUTION and elsewhere. But the small end of the Hancock boom.

GARFIELD's record as a congressman gets in the way of the republican journals at every turn. It is now discovered that he never violated his principles by voting against any land grant or subsidy bill that ever came up for consideration. He was the consistent champion of fraud. This, however, from a republican standpoint is an unanswerable argument in his favor.

WE have received the premium list of the second annual fair of the Ocmulgee Farmers' club of Bibb county. The list is not only very liberal, but is supplemented by a number of special premiums. Among other things, we observe that Brother Burke, the well-known Macon publicist, has offered a premium for the best chicken pie. This involves the services of a pie-sampler, and makes the whole situation interesting.

THE members of the convention, which is to assemble at the capitol to-day for the purpose of nominating a candidate for governor and other state officers, have a high and responsible duty to perform. It has been predicted by the inents and their allies who still the whites by accumulating property. claim to act with the party that the re-They have secured the confidence of sult of the convention will be to disrupt their white neighbors, and they refuse to and demoralize the party. Whether give ear to the importunities of politithis prediction shall be verified o whether the party shall be united and practically invincible depends altogether attitude assumed by This is the sort of slavery Pledger alludes the members of the convention.

The delegates should remember that back of their personal prejudices or preferences lie the will and purpose of the people—the great body of the Georgia democracy. To ig. body of the Georgia democracy. To ignore this will would undoubtedly be fatal to democratic unity. We have the greatest confidence, however, in the patriotism and conservatism of the convention, and two-thirds rule will commend their course to every thoughtful and patriotic man in the convention.

There can be no doubt that the Col quitt men had the power to adopt the ajority rule. They could have established the rule, nominated their favorite and adjourned the convention before tonight. They had the unbroken precedent of five state conventions to justify them in such a course. In the face of all this in the interest of harmony and in pursuance of a liberality that has not been extended to them in the canvass, they have decided to yield their vantage ground and accept the terms proposed by their

It must be observed that the Colquitt men have consistently pursued this conservative and conciliatory course. They have, in many counties, such as Troup and Oglethorpe, where they have had a clear majority in mass meetings, submitted to an adjournment of the election to the ballot-box. They have abused none of the opposing candidates.

They are responsible for none for none of the bitterness that has been injected into the canvass. And at last when they have the power and the precedent to ride down the opposition and nominate their man without a struggle, they yield this advantage in the interest of harmony and declare themselves ready to abide the result of the two-thirds rule.

We believe that Governor Colquitt and his friends have acted with wisdom, as well as patriotism, in this matter. Even if they are not strong enough to get a ballots, they will be able to demonstrate in the struggle more or less prolonged the obstructionists in this contest, bu that they have done all that reason could demand or dignity permit in the interest of harmony and good will.

The Colored People and the Clayto

We printed yesterday a full report of meeting held by a number of colored citizens of Atlanta to take some action in regard to the recent infamous attack upon a family of negroes in Clayton coun ty. THE CONSTITUTION takes a sinter interest in the welfare and developmen of the colored people of Georgia; that is to say, it is a matter of indifference to us whether they vote the republican or the democratic ticket, so long as they maintain a conservative attitude and evince disposition to look after their own ma-terial and educational interests. It is our desire and the desire of every right thinking man in Georgia that that they shall find justice in our courts and be grandfather was one of the chief signers of secure in their rights no matter what the declaration of independence, and his their politics may be. Gwinnett Herald.

It is evident now that Colquitt will go into the convention with over two hundred of the three hundred and fifty delegates us ever decide I majority over all opposition and four the combination as Grant was; a minority may defeat the majority, but is that fair or democratic? When Haucck got a majority at Cincinnati, all opposition was withdrawn, and the triends of opposing candidates vied with each other in secing which should be the first to come to his support. Then came the love feast and tifal ways of enthusiasm that swept over the country'ss no other ever did since 1840. If Colquitt is not the first choice of the people, pray who is? There are other good men in this race. No man has ever done more for the democracy whan Yom Hardeman. FOREIGN PLASHES

London, August 2.-Mr. Plimsoll has consented to contest Liverpool for a seat in parliament.

To-day being a bank holiday there will be no market reports.

In the house of lords this evening the earl of Kimberly announced that Sir Bartle Frere had been recalled from the governorship of the Cape of Good Hope. He said there had never existed between the government and Sir Bartle Frere harmony, which was essential for the public interest. The London correspondent of the Edinburg Scotsman says he has been informed that an Irish member intends to move a resolution in the house of commons at the earlies', pop tunity, declaring that the direct and inquiect share of the peerage in legislation is far in excess of its legitimate interest in the government of the empire, and that the time will come when to redress this preponderance sons, brothers and heirs presumptive of the members of the house of lords, will be declared incapable of sitting in the house of commons.

In the house of lords to-day, Earl Granville, foreign secretary, moving the second reading of the Irish compensation bill, said the bill had arisen from the exceptional circumstances existing in Ireland during the last two years, and from the large increase of evictions, especially, during the present year. He said the bill is purely a temporary one.

Earl Grey moved the rejection of the bill, which he said was a measure for depriving landlords of their legal remedy to enforce the payment of rent. Bearing in mind the recent agitations in Ireland, he could conceive of no more direct encouragement for breaking the law than the present bill, and he trusted the house would firmly refuse assent to a measure which would be degrading to their legal remedy to enforce the payment of rent. Bearing in mind the recent agitations in Ireland, he could conceive of no more direct encouragement for breaking the law than the present bill, and he trusted the house would firmly refuse assent to a measure which would be degrading to their lord-ships and disastrous to Ireland. PARIS, Angust 2.—No cracks having appeared in the walls of houses in the Rue St. Michael which at first appeared to be in danger from Friday's floods, it is hoped that they will be saved. Numerous gangs of workmen were engaged all day Saturday in propping them with wooden supports.

The elections to the councils general up to the present time show that in 62 cases the republicans have been successful and in 16 the conservatives. Six second ballots in the latter will be necessary. The returns of the elections for councils general show that 704 republicans and 281 conservatives were elected. 67 second ballots will be necessary. The republicans gain 184.

THE TUBKISH QUESTION.

LONDON, August 2.—The Standard's Vienna correspondent says the statement that the porte intends to cede Dulcigno to Montenegro isstrengthened by the dispatch of a Turkish naval squadron to the Dulcigno coast to enfore the cession. The Standard's finencial article reports that £190,000 in gold have been purchased in the open market for export to America.

The Paris correspondent of the Times telegraphs that negotiations for a naval demonstration in Turkish waters are still proceeding, and final details are on the point of being settled. There has never been the slightest foundation for a report of the joint Anglo-French command of the expeditions, as all the powers are agreed in giving the command to England. The periodical rumors, that have been abandoned, that France, Austria or some other power shrinks from the execution of the plan, are equally unfounded, but if the porte promptivacties the Montenegrin question, the demonstrations will be suspended.

The Greek government intended publishing, yesterday, ordinances for the mobilization of the army, but in cossequence of advice of the powers it has been decided to postpone such measure for the present.

A MISSISSIPPI VENDETTA.

Iorrible Butcheries Among the Memporrible in its details than anything I have ever heard of. I wrote to you some time since about a feud existing between the Armistead family in De Soto county, ever heard of. I wrote to you some time since about a feud existing between the Armistead family in De Soto county, white, and the Nelms, colored, in Tunica county. It had its origin in one of the Armisteads killing one of the Nelms's about a year ago. About two months ago Ed Nelms killed young Armistead by way of revenge. The murderer was arrested, and is now in jail in Hernando. This murder called forth threats of extinction from both families, which has culminated in the most brutal and barbarious murders that have ever disgraced this country.

Last Friday the Armisteads came here and took out a warrant before Justice Kennon for the arrest of two negroes, Nelms and Conkey, charging them with being accessory to the murder of Young Armistead two months ago. Deputy Sheriff Jones, with two of the friends, went immediately to the neighborhood of Commerce, or Indian Creek, near the De Soto line, and made arrest on the warrant. That night, while on his way to town with the prisoners, they were met by a party—variously estimated in numbers from half a dozen to forty—who demanded the prisoners and ordered the officers to "git." Coming to town, they made report to Sheriff J. H. Owen, who immediately summoned a posse and went to the scene of action. After a brief search the prisoners of the former night were found dead, their throats cut from ear to ear and disemboweled. This was on Friday night and Saturday.

Saturday night another of the Nelmses was caught by the same parties and served in exactly the same way. Circumstances point naturally and strongly to the Armistead boys as the perpetrators of these dastardy crimes. They say there are five others they intend to serve in the same way—three negroes and two whites. The people of the county, irrespective of color or politics, have risen in mass and nothing will be left undone to bring the guilty parties to justice. Two thousand dollars will be raised in the next few days to defray the expenses of the procecution. On Monday a mass meeting of the citizens of the county

A Bloody Reception.

Sr. Petersburg, August 2.—The newspapers here publish advices from Navorossisk, on the Russian shore of the Black sea, stating that a number of Greek and Armenian emigrants recently tried to land there, but their ship was fired upon with a storm of bullets by order of the Russian local authorities. The captain of the vessel was killed. A Russian war schooner afterwards captured the remainder of the crew and passengers of the emigrant vessel, some of whom were wounded, and the captives were immediately imprisoned. About a half million Greeks and Armenians who intend to emigrate to Russia probably will not be pleased by the reception of their compatriots. A Bloody Reception.

were appointed on the committee and instructed or report at the opening of the afternoon session.

A. P. Stewart, T. R. Ripley, T. B. Plumb, J. D. Junningiam and Beuj. Couley were proposed for nembership by Mr. J. Henly Smith.

Mr. M. W. Johnson proposed the names of Moses Cole and Campbell Wallace, Jr.
Dr. Hape proposed the names of Jas Sneed, of Slayton county, and H. H. Cary, of Troup.
All were unanimously elected.

The secretary and treasurer made a verbal recontine, read an interesting report on the intoin worm and boil worm, the moths of which he exhibited to the society. Dr. Jones inquired about the harlequin bug, which destroys his cabbages and collards. They usually appear after rains or a moist spell, in July, in large numbers. He had tried various remedies, including Losdon the head tried various remedies, including Losdon the head tried to be the head to be the plants. But he had the tried to the head to be the head the head to be the head the head to be the head the head to be the head to be the head the h apple leaf, and suggested that it might be progated from the red cedar.

Mr. Newman said that his attention had been called to a statement in the American Agriculturalist that this fungus was one stage of the growth of that on the cedar. He had noticed that apple trees growing near cedars were worse affected than those remote from them, and that the fruit and leaves of the quinces were attacked and the tendris similar to those on the cedar bail developed in moist weather on the fruit.

Dr. W. L. Jones, chairman of the committee on meteorology in its relations to horticulture, was called upon for a report. Having just arrived, he asked that his report be deferred for a time, which was granted.

The society then adjourned at 12 m. to reassemble at 2 p.m.

The limit in the earliness at which we are reperposed to the limit in the earliness at which peaches will mature?

In normal seasons, that is, in seasons connectes with a sufficient amount of heat and moisture we may expect early fruit. If on the contrary there is desicent moisture or excessive cold we may expect later ripening. When we consider the fact that we have peaches ripening a month earlie now than fifteen years ago it is not improbable that we may get peaches ripening ten days earlie than the Alexander. It must be remembered tha the earlier varieties do not require as much solatheat as the later varieties, but a certain amoun of solar heat is necessary to develop the seccharin matter in the fruit.

Mr. Berckmans alluded to the fact that on Look out mountain, where Mrs. I. W. Bryan, who has such a fine exhibition in our hall, resides, the trees most exposed to cold blasts had escaped most, while those best protected by forests had been killed.

Dr. Hape mentioned some interesting facts in relation to the killing of fruit.

Prof. Willet said a Mr. Willis, of Greene county, suffered seedling peaches to grow on different parts of his farm of 3,000 acres, and where the peaches were never killed by frost he planted his orchards. The results of such experiment and observation conducted on a large scale would prove wastly beneficial to the horticultural interests of the state.

His Hale's orchard was cultivated in corn this year. The trees were severally pruned in the spring; soil gray with a large per cent of decomposed grantie.

sked how long peach trees will produce sound and healthy fruit?

I had trees 30 feet apsft that were so large that wagon could not be driven between them, the oldest orchard I have was planted in 1858. This has been cut in three times and now does on the sound fruit. My experience is that rees will not bear profitably after they are ten or twelve years old.

The question of protecting fruit trees from rabits was discussed at some length.

Mr. Berkmans had found that the blood of a abbit rubbed on the bodies of the trees kept hem off.

In the hall adjoining the one used for the pur pose of holding the business meeting of the soci ety, the exhibition of fruits was made. The exhibit on was quite fine and we are informed was in many respects equal to the one made last year at Macon. The exhibits were dispayed upon a minor of abless enting the entire tength of the half, burling to the day quite a uniform word of visitors were the half inspecting the exhibits, and commenting upon the many handsome varieties exhibited upon the tables tables

Flowery Branch, via Gainesville, August 3, 1880.—Yesterday a sad accident cocurred near this place which adds another commentary to the pernicious results of the intemperate use of alcoholic liquors. A white man named Hagerty, a journeyman tanner, and a negro named Louis S range, had been drinking freely here all day and left here for Atlanta together very drunk. About three fourths of a mile from here they reached a treatle on the Air Line road, thirty-four feet high. As they started across Hagerty gave his coat to Strange to cairy, Strange being ahead. Strange had only advanced a few feet, when on turning to look back he discovered that Hagerty had failen, but had caught hold of the treatle. DALTON, August 3—The party of ladies and gentlemen that spent a few days at Catoosa have returned. They are greatly indebted to their kind and entertaining chapteron, Mrs. Comer, for her kindness and attention, and to Mr. D. Bukofzer for his successful management and untiring efforts to make the trip a success,—Misses Missie and Rossie Trammell, charming young ladies of Griffin, arrived last Sunday from Rome. They are visiting the Misses Trammell. Miss Jennie Villapigue, a beautiful young lady-of Macon, arrived yesterday. She is the guest of Miss Lessie Comer, at North End.—Your regular correspondent from this place is not the author of the report in The Constitution of last Sunday dated July 30. The writer evidently let his imagination get the best of him for once. From his exaggerated idea of a Weaver-boom at this place we infer that he is one of Weaver's "green—backers," who has a misconception of the true state of the greenback party at this point. It appears that he is creeting a Weaver flag and getting up a rally all by himself. Such a rally "rally" ever occurs and he is pardonable for the extra guish that the thinks the occasion requires of him. But we can't forgive him for the report that ex-Governor Brown, Hon. David Butler, General Broune, and no telling how many other celebrated parties, were expected to deliver addresses at a Sunday-school celebration near here last Saurday. We don't care how much he exaggerates his greenback ideas, but when it comes to a matter of sense one wants solid facts.—W. H. Felton spoke to-day at Spring Place.—Clitton Kenner, a little son of Mr. J. H. Kenner, was accidently shot in the thigh yesterday while hunting with some other boys. The wound is not a dangerous one. SMITH'S SCROCLA SYFRUP The Great Question Settled at Last

Extract from a Letter.

From one of the first young gentlemen of Atlants, who was in a most pitable condition, but cutively relieved by using a few bottles of smile. Scrotula Syrup. We do not publish his letter in full, because it is too long and because it contains some very severe criticisms on other similar remedies he had tried in valu.

After naming the severe complication of discasse with which he was suffering, he gays: ""

"The discasse spread rapidly, and i suffered deaths, if a sum of the contains and hope of recovery almost gone, i was advised."

"The discasse spread rapidly, and i suffered deaths, if the grants of my need, and should man. " " From the use of the first bottle i commenced to improve, and soon the critical states of the state of the sta
